What User likes about Habana 61: By far the best food we had in Havana. The lobster was chef for perfection. Gazpacho with shrimp was really good. The drinks have enough alcohol, we encountered a few places with watered drinks place is very clean with air conditioning, no flies!!! Price reasonable read more. What John S doesn't like about Habana 61: We were quite disappointed by this restaurant which didn't live up to the reviews. The food was OK but nothing more, and the plain rice and beans that was served with everything didn't really complement the tuna we ordered very well. We asked for medium-rare tuna but it came well done. The service didn't particularly feel very welcoming. We had far superior food and service at a lower price point elsewhere in Havana....
