What a great find, that is a little hard to find. Beautiful view of the city from up here in a little garden. It was raining so we sat inside, still a really cool space. You hear all the church bells ring at just after it is very cool. If you're looking for this it's halfway down the block on the left if your walking from Central Ave towards Enjoy! read more. What Brionna Greenfelder doesn't like about Azotea Calle 7:

How disappointing. Came here with my girlfriend and clearly it wasn't completely full, but they wouldn't let us in without a reservation. This area is very bad and multiple people approached us on the street saying rude and threatening things. How sad to not let people in even when you have space. read more. You can use the WiFi of the establishment free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. Azotea Calle 7 from San Jose is a good place for a bar to have a beer after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, One can also find some international dishes to choose from in the menu. Similarly, the eatery serves a rounded diversity of tasty tapas, which are certainly worth a taste, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
