The woman working the counter was very friendly and spoke English very well, though I was prepared to try my Spanish. She recommended that I try the seco de chivo (a lamb stew I was told, but I think it's actually goat). I'm glad I tried it, as well as their hot sauce which also had a really nice flavor and texture. The seco de chivo, a bottle of sparkling water and an espresso set me back $7.50. There might be cheap... read more. At Fabiolita from Quito you have the opportunity to taste delicious vegetarian courses, in which no trace of animal meat or fish was processed, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast.
