Princesa is a small, non-typical cafe style restaurant tucked back in a small neighborhood of Playa Samara. If you are looking for some variety in your dining while in Costa Rica, give this restaurant a try. The menu is not your typical Tico, offering poutine, hot and sour soup, meat loaf, lasagna and more. I've tried half the menu and recommended it all but my stand out favorite so far was the goat cheese and fig piz... read more. What User doesn't like about Y Postres Princesa Diner Desserts:

Avoid this place like the plague. The owner was extremely rude and unpleasant. She made us wait 45 minutes for our food. I normally wouldn't say anything but we had to drive back to San Jose to catch a flight home. We tried to be as polite as possible when we asked for our food but she just kept yelling at us and told us we shouldn't be complaining and the food ended up being awful. The owner really was over the top... read more.
