Great spot to stop for some good coffee and food. They have a good size variety so they will probably have some of your favorites or something good and new for you to try. I had their wrap which was packed with some many delicious flavors that worked so well together. You should stop by to try out their coffee and food. read more. What Santiago S doesn't like about El Cafecito Rústico:

We ordered iced mocha and coconut french toast... the iced coffee barely tasted like coffee and the french toast looked like they put the batter on the pan and then added the slice of bread. Our order was a little disappointing read more.
