What Lauren B likes about Casa Escondida: Really charming restaurant tucked away in San Francisco. At night has dim lighting, candles, soft music and is super romantic. The staff was incredibly friendly and accommodating, and we had a very nice time. This is the perfect place to have a bottle of wine and a deep conversation. Chicharron and papas trufadas are musts. Will definitely be back. read more. What S doesn't like about Casa Escondida:

We got a table for 4 overlooking the parking lot, which was not great to say the least. The food was 'meh' yet overpriced: crispy shrimps, pork knuckle (no side dish included), seafood pasta (said it was spaghetti but got fusilli). Truffle fries were great! In the end, I told waiter to add $20 tip which he turned into 20% tip and there is no way of knowing that until you get your final receipt as the machine doesn't s... read more. At Casa Escondida, scrumptious menus from all over the world are directly prepared for you, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you may look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
