I was here for dinner and in the did, the pizza was fired in a wood and tasted really great. Although it was not an authentic Italian pizza, it was really good, had some crispness to it and was thin. the starters were a bit disappointing (we took some artichokes bruschetta,) as he was part very small in comparison to the price. everywhere it is a great place to check. the... read more. What User doesn't like about Il Colosseo De L'antica Roma:

Meh. Tasteless for a self claimed italian cuisine. They have little over two hundred different offerings in their menu (ridiculous and proof of old fashion ways that do not work in 2021 schema), honestly it was overpriced for what it's worth. Won't be visiting again read more.
